

Vista del Halcon
2001 Hawk Hill Vineyard Chardonnay

Pick of the Week - January 23, 2003

by Dan Clarke

Proprietor | Editor: California Wine and Food

“Our third Pick of the Week is a particularly attractive Chardonnay... it has what so many current examples of the variety lack—some personality.”

“The nose shows aromas of citrus and freshly-cut green apple. That first sip opens up crisp flavors. It shows a little spicy/cinnamon character, but is predominately creamy in the mid-palate. A nice, long finish. Try with halibut in beurre blanc.”

California
Wine and Food

